Art Unit: 1624

Applicant's remarks filed 2/14/03 have been received and reviewed. Claims 1-14 and 27-30 are now pending in this application.

Applicants were given ONE MONTH or THIRTY DAYS to cancel non-elected subject matter or take other appropriate action (37 CFR 1.144). Applicants have not deleted non-elected subject matter from the claims nor taken appropriate action. The examiner does not have authority to cancel this subject matter from the claims. Therefore, prosecution is reopened.

Claims 10 and 11 are withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected subject matter.

Improper Markush Rejection

Claims 1-9, 12-14 and 27-30 are rejected under a judicially created doctrine as being drawn to an improper Markush group, that is, the claims lack unity of invention. The basis of this rejection is the same as given in the previous office action and is incorporated herein fully by reference. Applicants previous arguments were fully considered but not found to be persuasive. The members of the instant claims are neither few in number nor can the search of the entire claims be made without a serious burden. Applicants did not point to "a community of chemical or physical characteristics" which justify their inclusion in a common group, and that such inclusion is not repugnant to principles of scientific classification" In re JONES (CCPA) 74 USPQ 149 (see footnote 2). The instant claims do NOT have a significant structural feature.

The search embraces only the elected compound, and that was deemed allowable.

Art Unit: 1624

Applicants are again advised that compounds, corresponding compositions, a method of use and a process of making that are of the same scope are considered to form a single inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1, 37 CFR 1.475(d).
